

Evaluation criteria and procedures

Postgraduate and Postdoc Small Funding Grants 2023

Overview

The evaluation of proposals is carried out by a panel appointed by the Institute. The proposals will be evaluated against the following pre-determined evaluation criteria:

(a) Scientific originality, excellence & relevance to the goals of the IRC

(<https://www.stemcells.cam.ac.uk/research/irc>, Aim 1)

- Soundness of concept
- Originality of concept
- Quality of objectives
- Feasibility of objectives

(b) Develops new collaborations that span disciplines and themes

- Extent to which project complements or extends the interdisciplinary objectives of the IRC
- Innovative aspects
- Collaborative content
- Learning new techniques

(c) Implementation

- Appropriateness of the allocation and justification of the resources to be committed
- Quality and effectiveness of methodology and work plan
- Expertise of the applicant and any collaborators
- Opportunity for follow on funding